Prof Romana Ryšavá
President of the Czech Society of Nephrology

Dear Prof Romana Ryšavá,

We are very pleased to inform you that the affiliation of the Czech Society of Nephrology to the International Society of Nephrology (ISN) has been ratified by the ISN Council.

It is with great pleasure that we start a unique cooperation and partnership between our two societies.

ISN Affiliated Societies have the following benefits:

- You have a seat on your region's ISN regional board (the representative could be you, as President, or someone else who can represent your Society. ISN membership for the representative is needed for this role)
- You receive priority consideration to pitch for the organization of joint events (Frontiers, World Congress of Nephrology)
- You apply for endorsement of your congresses, courses, and events by the ISN for free
- You have the possibility to announce congresses and courses through the ISN website
- You have the possibility to become one of our Collective Membership Societies.

All ISN Affiliated Societies are acknowledged on the ISN website.

ISN Affiliated Societies are kindly requested to include the ISN logo on their website and promote ISN events amongst their peers.

To facilitate the network of ISN Affiliated Societies we organize a series of activities during the year with a highlight event around the ISN World Congress of Nephrology.

Please keep us informed of any changes to your Society's leadership structure, to ensure that ISN communications reach the correct correspondent.

Should you have any questions regarding our partnership, please contact us at membership@theisn.org

Welcome to ISN!

With personal regards,

Agnes Fogo
ISN President 2021-2023
